Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Siem Reap Arrival

Welcome to Siem Reap, the provincial capital and gateway to the ancient Angkor Temples. Recognized as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO, the Angkor Archaeological Park encompasses dozens of temple ruins including Bayon, Banteay Srei and the legendary Angkor Wat. Upon your arrival at the airport, you'll be met our friendly guide. Just look for the sign with our Asia Tour Advisor logo and your name.

In the late afternoon, take an orientation walk around hotel area and later in the afternoon explore the Psar Chass, also known as the “Old Market”.

Meals: None, Lunch at local favorite restaurant

Accommodation: Siem Reap hotels

Day 2: Siem Reap – Angkor Temples

Wake up early to be transferred for picking up the most beautiful, haunting and spiritual moment to visit magnificent Angkor Wat at dawn. This special activity is designed also to help you see “the Temple reflex on the water” when it’s much cooler and less crowded. Angkor Wat, the UNESCO World Heritage Site, which was constructed by Suryavarman II who reigned Cambodia from 1113 to 1152 and built the five towers in the 12th century and dedicated them to the Hindu God Vishnu. The plan of the pyramidal conception of the temple combined with spaces, alleys and ditches is an ancient masterpiece of architectural design and construction.

For your most convenience, a table with hot tea or coffee and breakfast box arranged by Travel Cambodia will be served right on site of Angkor Wat.

Our journey continues with visiting South Gate of Angkor Thom, with its majestic doors and artifacts. Then visit monumental temple of Bayon which is the heart of Angkor Thom. Later, visit the Elephant Terrace, Terrace of the Leper King and Takeo "Jewel of Crystal", which is dedicated to the Hindu God Shiva and was erected at the end of the 10th century. Leaving Angkor Thom by the North Gate, you travel to Preah Khan (Sacred Sword), one of Angkor’s largest temples, constructed in the 12th century by Jayavarman VII. You should not miss Ta Prohm Temple, which is a wonderful combination of human genius and natural beauty with its giant trees that have grown there for centuries.

Meals: Breakfast at the dining lounge, Lunch/Dinner at local favorite restaurant

Day 3: Siem Reap – Banteay Srei – Land Mine Museum – Butterfly Center

After the breakfast, we start the tour visiting Banteay Srei that is also one of the must-see sites. This beautiful temple was built in 967 AD by Jayavarman V's guru, it showcases the most exquisite, deep and complex carvings in all Khmer architecture. Next, we will drop in to visit Land Mine Museum where you will see a collection of thousands of landmines and learn the importance of clearing landmines in Cambodia. It tells a lot the history and culture of this amazing society. You also have chance to interact with a victim from landmine in a village nearby.

Later in the afternoon, you will have a leisure tour to visit Butterfly Center and spend some time in spectacular surroundings filled with rare and vivid butterflies.

Stop en route and watching the entire process of how local people make the palm sugar...

At the end of the day, transfer to Bong Thom homestay, a unique community-based tourism site which captures the essence of village life in the heartland of Cambodia (As a community-based project with neighboring in Phum Sanday, The Bong Thom Homestay aims to help improve the livelihoods and reduce poverty in the countryside).

Check in to the homestay and enjoy a welcome dinner.

Day 9: Phnom Penh City Tour

Welcome to Phnom Penh, Cambodia's vibrant and bustling capital city. Despite its recent turbulent history, Phnom Penh's wide tree-lined boulevards and faded colonial mansions hold an undeniable charm. Phnom Penh was founded in the 14th century and has long been a vital trading hub at the confluence of three rivers: the Mekong, Tonle Sap, and Bassac. Start the day learning about the Khmer Rouge and Cambodia's recent history on a guided tour of the Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum and the notorious Choeung Ek "Killing Fields". Get the better inside of Cambodian life, we will stop at Russia market, where you can find anything from motorcycle parts to valuable gems. In the afternoon, visit Royal Palace, which is now home to the royal family. In the northern section of the palace grounds lies the Silver Pagoda, the most sacred one in the country and The National Museum.
