Detailed Itinerary

Day 1: Danang Arrival: Welcome to Hoi An

As your plane touches down at Danang International Airport, a warm welcome awaits you. Look out for our guide, who will be holding a sign bearing the distinctive Asia Tour Advisor Logo and, of course, your name. During the journey to your hotel in Hoi An, our guide will provide a brief introduction to the area, setting the stage for your upcoming explorations. Upon arriving at your hotel, you'll check in and have the opportunity to unwind.

Hoi An Town stands as a superbly preserved model of a Southeast Asian trading port that thrived from the 15th to the 19th century. Its architecture and street layout eloquently reflect the fusion of both indigenous and foreign influences, crafting an unparalleled heritage site.

Day 2: Exploring Hoi An & Its Countryside: A Local Market Insight

As a unique enhancement to your Hoi An experience, embark on an early morning journey to the bustling local fish market, a vivid and lively scene where you can either shop for fresh produce or engage in lively interactions with local merchants. This market not only offers an excellent opportunity to purchase local seafood and produce but also a chance to observe and capture the essence of daily life in this community. After this insightful and enjoyable morning experience, return to your hotel for breakfast and the commencement of your day.

Stroll through Hoi An's UNESCO World Heritage Site, where you will uncover a captivating history woven from diverse cultural threads. Your guide will escort you through the Old Town, revealing the Chinese, Vietnamese, and Japanese influences that have left an indelible mark on Hoi An. As you reconvene with your guide at the hotel lobby, keep in mind that while the entire city is recognized as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Old Town stands as a beautifully preserved illustration of a Southeast Asian trading port that thrived from the 15th to the 19th centuries. Your guide will guide you past venerable residences and cobblestone streets, showcasing the architectural elements reflecting Vietnamese, Chinese, and Japanese heritage, providing a window to a simpler and more tranquil era.

Venture into the Hoi An Museum, a repository of the region's rich cultural history. The Chinese Assembly Halls beckon with their distinguished Chinese architecture, followed by a visit to the iconic Japanese Covered Bridge, a timeless symbol of the city displaying exquisite Japanese craftsmanship. Your guide will regale you with intriguing tales and insights at each site, concluding with your return to the hotel.

Day 3: Hoi An to Hue: A Scenic Journey

You have the option to extend your stay in Hoi An or proceed to Hue. The transfer between these two charming locales is a scenic three-hour drive by car, allowing for potential stops along the way to admire the picturesque fishing village of Lang Co Beach, pay a visit to the Cham Museum, and traverse the mesmerizing Pass of Ocean Clouds. Once you reach Hue, you'll check in at your hotel, ready to unwind.

Day 4: Hue Imperial City Tour: A Glimpse into the Past

Embark on your day with a visit to the Imperial Citadel, which served as the seat of power for the Nguyen Dynasty from 1802 to 1945. After a captivating exploration of this magnificent historical relic, continue to the 'Old City' and Tinh Tam Lake, a serene spot where emperors once came to relax.

In the afternoon, set out to visit Mu Pagoda, which offers a panoramic view of the Perfume River. You'll also explore Khai Dinh's Tomb, distinguished by its traditional Vietnamese architecture infused with a touch of European influence, setting it apart from other royal tombs in Hue. Conclude your day back in Danang for the night.

Day 5: Bana Hills in Danang: A Day in the Clouds

Depart from Hue today to return to Danang for an extraordinary day of sightseeing. Bana Hills, often referred to as the "Castle in the Clouds," beckons for exploration. Your adventure at Bana Hills will commence with the exhilarating ascent on the world's longest single-cable cable car system, a journey that quickly immerses you in a fairy-tale-like realm. The climate atop Bana Hills is a unique experience of its own, with the day progressing through the four seasons. Mornings are cool, akin to spring; noon brings warmth resembling summer; the afternoon takes on the damp and cool ambiance of autumn, while the evening is as chilly as winter.

Bana Hills offers a chance to marvel at the famed Golden Bridge and enjoy a sumptuous lunch in this enchanting setting. Later, you'll descend by cable car, returning to your Danang hotel or continuing your exploration of other highlights in the city.

Marble Mountain, specifically Thuy Son Mount, is home to distinctive pagodas nestled within its caves. Upon reaching the mountain's peak, you'll be treated to a breathtaking panoramic view of Danang. Additionally, you'll have the opportunity to visit Non Nuoc, a stone-carving village situated near Marble Mountain. This village showcases magnificent marble sculptures created by the skilled hands of local artisans.

Following your visit to Marble Mountain, head directly to your hotel in Danang for check-in and relaxation.

Danang has received global recognition as an idyllic destination boasting splendid sandy beaches. Beyond its natural beauty, the city captivates visitors with its modernity and sophistication. While in Danang, you'll have the chance to bask in the world's most charming coastal paradise, complete with modern beachfront resorts and beachfront attractions. Your morning begins with breakfast at the hotel, followed by a free day for activities of your choice.
